NURTURE NEWLANDS (PTY) LTD

1. INFORMATION MANUAL

Prepared in accordance with Section 51 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act, No 2 of 2000

2. THE PRACTICE

Nurture Newlands (Pty) Ltd registration number (2011/102094/07) t/a Nurture Newlands is a private company providing physical rehabilitation as well as sub-acute medical services to South African as well as international patients in need thereof. By providing these services, Nurture Newlands is able to create an environment in which these medical conditions can be treated in an effort to restore the patient's health, dignity and wellness. Because the company delivers medical treatment and holds information of current and former clients in accordance with the requirements of the Health Professionals Act of 1974, the Company is also bound to comply with several ethical rules as set out by the Health Professionals Council of South Africa (HPCSA), in particular the duty to preserve patient confidentiality, unless legislation or a court order compels it to act otherwise.

3. PURPOSE OF THE MANUAL

This manual is intended to foster a culture of transparency and accountability by giving effect to the right to information held by a private body that is required for the exercise or protection of any right, and actively promoting a society in which the people of South Africa have access to information to enable them to exercise and protect their rights.

Section 9 of the Act, recognizes that justifiable limitations of the right to access may be permitted. Such justifiable limitations include but are not limited to:

- Reasonable protection of privacy;
- Commercial confidentiality;
- Effective, efficient and good governance.

4. REQUEST FOR INFORMATION

Any person who requests information should do so in accordance with, and in the formats prescribed by, the Act. Refer attachment (The Prescribed Form). It should be noted that commercial information and financial information may be withheld on the grounds of sections 63-70 of the Act.

Fees A request for access to a record, other than a record containing proprietary personal information, will be processed only after a request fee has been paid. Applicants will be notified of the amount of the request fee. The fee payable for access to a record depends on the form in which access is required and the reasonable time required to search for and prepare a record.

10. PROCEDURE OF HOW RECORDS CAN BE OBTAINED (MANNER OF ACCESS) – (SECTION 51(1)(E))

The requester must comply with all the procedural requirements as set out in the Act relating to the request for access to a record.

The requester must complete the prescribed form to make the request and submit same as well as payment of a request fee and a deposit (if applicable), to the Information Officer at the postal, physical address, fax number or electronic mail address as noted in the Attachment (The Prescribed Form, Form “C”)

11. PRESCRIBED FEES - (CHAPTER 3 SECTION 54)

The Act provides for two types of fees, namely:

- i) A request fee, which is a form of administration fee to be paid by all requesters except personal requesters, before the request is considered and is not refundable; and
- ii) An access fee, which is paid by all requesters in the event that a request for access is granted. This fee is inclusive of costs involved by the body in obtaining and preparing a record for delivery to the requester.

When a request is received by the Information Officer, such officer shall by notice require the requester to pay the prescribed request fee, before further processing of the request. (s54(1)). Fees are set out in the Attachment (Fee Structure)

12. INFORMATION OR RECORDS NOT FOUND

If a requested record cannot be found or if the record does not exist, the Information Officer shall, by way of an affidavit or affirmation, notify the requester that it is not possible to give access to the requested record.

The affidavit or affirmation shall provide full details of all the steps taken to find the record or to determine its existence, including details of all communications by the Information Officer with every person who conducted the search.

This notice will be regarded as a decision to refuse a request for access to the record concerned for the purposes of the Act.

If the record should later be found, the requester shall be given access to the record in the manner stipulated by the requester in the prescribed form, unless the Information Officer refuses access.

The attention of the requester is drawn to the provisions of Chapter 4; Part 3 of the Act in terms of which the company may refuse, on certain specified grounds, to provide information to a requester.

13. INFORMATION REQUESTED ABOUT A THIRD PARTY

Chapter 5; Part 3 of the Act specifies the procedure regarding a request for information or records about a third party.

In considering such a request, the company will adhere to the provisions of the Act. Section 71 requires that the Information Officer take all reasonable steps to inform a third party to whom the requested record relates of the request, informing him that he may make written or oral representations to the Information Officer why the request should be refused, or give written consent for the disclosure of the record.

14. GROUND FOR REFUSAL OF A REQUEST

A private body is entitled to refuse a request for information on the following grounds: Section 63 provides for the mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person, including a deceased person which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural person. Section 64 provides for the mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party, if the record contains:

- trade secrets of that third party

- financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party;
 - information disclosed in confidence by a third party to the private body, if such disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;

Section 65 provides for the mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties if such disclosure would constitute a breach of a duty of confidence owed to such third party in terms of any agreement;

Section 66 provides for the mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property;

Section 67 provides for the mandatory protection of records, which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings;

Section 68 provides for protection of the commercial activities of a private body, which may include:

- any intellectual property which the company might own and which is protected by copyright
- trade secrets
- financial, commercial, scientific or technical information, which disclosure could likely cause harm to a party's financial or commercial interests
- information which, if disclosed, could put the Company at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;

Section 69 provides for the protection of research information or that of a third party, if its disclosure would place the Company, the third party or the subject matter of the research at a serious disadvantage.

All requests for information will be assessed on their own merits and in accordance with the applicable legal principles and legislation.

15. REMEDIES AVAILABLE

Internal Remedies

The company does not have internal appeal procedures. The decision by the Information Officer is final. Requesters will have to exercise such external remedies at their disposal if a request is refused and the requester is not satisfied with the response of the Information Officer

External Remedies

A requester that is dissatisfied with the Information Officer's refusal to disclose information may within 30 days of notification of the decision apply to Court for appropriate relief. A third party who is dissatisfied with an Information Officers decision to disclose information may within 30 days apply to a court for appropriate relief. The courts that have jurisdiction over these applications are the Constitutional Court, the High Court or another court of similar status and a Magistrate's Court designated by the Minister of Justice and Constitutional Court, and which is presided over by a designated magistrate.

16. UPDATING OF THE MANUAL

The company will update this manual at such intervals as may be deemed necessary.
